

Every day it becomes more difficult to strengthen my understanding of, and respect for open political discussion, a basic right now being curtailed through the amalgamation of stations from networks, into conglomerates seeking financial control rather than encouraging thoughtful voter responsibility. A case in point is docket 04-233, concerning the Sinclair stations' lop sided "Stolen Honor."

To send this message to you requires me to go through what may be a difficult process because my firewall has stringent parameters, but I'm fighting for liberty for myself, and for my young grandchildren.
